8119 Historia del gran Tamorlan, e Itinerario y Narracion del Viage y relacion de la Embaxada que Ruy Goncales de Clavigo le hizo por Mandado del Rey don Henrique el Tercero de Castillo — Sevilla, 1582

This is an account of the two Embassies of Henry the Third of Castile to Tamerlan, in the years 1403–4. It is mentioned by Gibbon as a very curious relation, who only refers to the account of it by Mariana and M. De la Croix. Mariana says, "Viago largo y muy difficultoso de que los mismos compusieron un libro, que haydia anda impreso con nombre de Itinerario en que relatan por menudo los particulares de su embaxada y muchas otras cosas assaz maravillosas si veraderas."

Another authority in support of the truth of Bajazet's Iron Cage (Gibbon, vol 12, p. 32, 33*) might have been adduced from this book. "Y assi llevado (Bayazeto) en presencia del Tamorlan el qual gozando todo lo possible de la vitoria le hizo hazer muy fuertes cadenas y una* JAULA donde dormia de noche, y assi aprisionado, &c.

One of the rarest and most curious of the editions of Esop in the fifteenth century, with woodcuts. A complete copy according to Braun and the Bibliotheca Spenceriana should contain 275 leaves. The following Works have been imported from the Continent by Payne and Foss.

CICOGNARA STORIA DELLA SCULTURA.

A History of the Art of Sculpture, from its Revival in Italy to the Nineteenth Century, by LEOPOLD CICOGNARA, President of the Academy of Fine Arts in Venice: illustrated with nearly seven hundred engravings.—The third Volume contains a Critical Examination of the Works of Canova, 3 vols. folio, sewed, 11*l.*

PETRARCHA RIME.

Petrarch's Poems, by Professor MARSAND of Padua, beautifully printed on vellum paper, 2 vols. 4to. 5l. 5s.

 This edition is illustrated by a fine portrait of Laura, engraved by Morghen; a portrait of Petrarch, from a picture recently discovered, engraved by Gandolfi; a fac simile of Petrarch's handwriting, from the celebrated MS. of Virgil in the Ambrosian Library; and also several plates in aquatinta. The second volume contains a Bibliographical Description of all the editions of Petrarch's Poems, in chronological order, to the year 1800. The early editions of the Fifteenth Century have been accurately collated, and many new and valuable readings are introduced, which render this edition the best of the poet.
